

NYU CS Depth Qualifying Exam Committee Form version: June, 2003

Student's name: _____ ID#: _____ date: _____

This form must be submitted to the Graduate Program Coordinator no later than the beginning of the second semester of the second year in the Ph.D. program.

From the Ph.D. Program Rules:

Students must pass the Depth Qualifying Exam (DQE) by the end of their second year of PhD study; this exam may be taken no more than twice.

A DQE is administered by a committee of at least three faculty members, nominated by the student and his/her research advisor, and approved by the DGS. Each DQE will have a designated chair who is not the student's research advisor. If the research advisor is not a member of the committee, the research advisor must write a letter evaluating student's progress, and send it to the DQE committee members before the exam.

The DQE committee will define a syllabus, which must be approved by the DGS, and make the syllabus available to the student no later than two weeks before the exam.
