Travel Awards

Financial support for return air travel is possible for a very small number of participants supported by TWAS: the Academy of Sciences for the developing world.

Participants who have been selected for oral presentation in APBC2010 are especially eligible to apply for this award.

The award is especially suited for students and participants who need to travel from developing countries to attend the conference.

Interested people need to send their letters and supporting documents on or before 30th November to R. Sowdhamini by email (mini@ncbs.res.in) with the subject ‘APBC2010: application for travel award’

1. In your letter of enclosure, please mention
   (a) the reason for seeking travel support,
   (b) whether you are a citizen of a developing country,
   (c) APBC2010 registration number (if you have registered already),
   (d) the paper number (if you are doing an oral presentation) and
   (e) if you are indeed the presenting author of the paper

Supporting documents include soft copies of

2. Bonafide certificate from the parent Institution and

3. Identity Card (in the case of students) should be attached

4. your curriculum Vitae and

5. a list of your scientific publications

There is no separate application form.
