

6th Annual
Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Month Celebration
Multi-Cultural Program and Presentation of Awards
May 24, 2014 at Vajiradhammapadip Buddhist Temple and Thai Cultural Center

4:30 PM PROGRAM

- Color Guards Long Island Central Chapter Korean War Veterans
- National Anthem Soh Young Lee Segredo & Wellbrook/AAAB Youth Orchestra
- In the Cold Pouring Rain & Formosan Evergreen.... Wellbrook/AAAB Youth Orchestra, Conductor Peter Papiewski
- Opening Remarks Jim Young, Ph.D. AAAB Chairman
- Introduction of Keynote Speaker Rev. Roderick A. Pearson, Executive Director
Suffolk County Youth Bureau/Human Services
- Keynote Speaker Steve Bellone, Suffolk County Executive
- Presentation of 2014 Distinguished Asian American Awards Ceremony Ramon Villongco, Emeritus Chairman
- Traditional Philippine Folk Dance “ Sayaw Sa Cuyo”Philippine Cultural Group of Long Island
- The Nature and Culture of Bangladesh Rongaloy (Group of Bangladesh Cultural Performing Arts)
- Presentation of Social Harmony Writing Contest Awards Dr. Chung Chi Chou, President and Founder Wellbrook Foundation, Inc.
- Vietnam Folk Songs and Dance Dr. Ngo Thanh Nhan
- Five Petals—Spring on the Jade Tower (A folk song describing Rice Transplanting Work of the Farmers.
 - On Top of the Citadel - Folk Music
 - Autumn Lake
 - One Mother, One Hundred Children (Jarai folk song on the birth of Vietnam nation)
 - “A Love Song to the Wind” Dance
- Amazing Thailand Vajiradhammapadip Sunday School Dance & Music Instructors
- Three Part Presentation of live music and dance from Amazing Thailand
(Khorn, Princess Parade and Roy Issan)
- Closing Remarks Vera Hu-Hyneman , 2014 AAPI Chair

Erno John Hormillosa & Grace Rustia
Master-of-Ceremonies