EMPLOYMENT

NYU DEPT OF COMPUTER SCIENCE: Clinical Professor Emerita, September 2020 - Present
Clinical Professor, September 2013 – August, 2020
Director, Program in Digital Humanities and Social Science –
October 2016 - August 2019
Associate Director of Undergraduate Studies for the CS Minors
Minors Programs – September 2011 – August 2017
Clinical Associate Professor, September 2008 – August 2013
Clinical Assistant Professor, January 2003 – August 2008
Adjunct Instructor, September, 1997 – December, 2002

NYU COURANT INSTITUTE Systems Administrator. June 2000 – January 2003

GE CAPITAL (FGIC) Consultant. June 1996 – May 2000

CHEMICAL/CHASE BANK Technology Officer. September 1995 – June 1996
Consultant. June 1996 – August 1996

TEACHING

Courses taught:

CSCI-UA.2 Introduction to Programming
CSCI-UA.4 Introduction to Web Design
CSCI-UA.60 Database Design and Web Implementation
CSCI-UA.61 Web Development and Programming
CSCI-UA.380 Special Topics: Computing in the Humanities and the Arts
CSCI-GA.1121 Working with Data

ENGL-GA.2957 Topics in Literary Theory: Literary Archives and Web Development
ENGL-GA.2971 Practicum in Digital Humanities – Textual Artifacts and their Digital Representations:
Creating an Online Archive (with Prof. Marion Thain, English)
ENGL-GA.1972 Practicum in Digital Humanities – Introduction to Programming: Python for Humanists
(with Prof. David Hoover, English)

SCHOL-UA-10 Presidential Scholars

Courses created:

CSCI-UA.60 Database Design and Web Implementation
CSCI-UA.380 Special Topics: Computing in the Humanities and the Arts
CSCI-GA.1121 Working with Data

ARTH-UA.850.001 Digital Tools for Art History (with Prof. Pepe Karmel, Department of Art History)
ENGL-GA.2957 Topics in Literary Theory: Literary Archives and Web Development
ENGL-GA.2971 Practicum in Digital Humanities – Textual Artifacts and their Digital Representations:
Creating an Online Archive (with Prof. Marion Thain, English)
ENGL-GA.1972 Practicum in Digital Humanities – Introduction to Programming: Python for Humanists
(with Prof. David Hoover, English)

CMT High School Computer Science: Courant Institute Summer Center for Mathematical Talent –
Working with Data

Independent study students supervised:

Development of a Content Management Systems for Contemporary Art, Artist Archives Initiative, 2016 - present
Research on the Conservation of Software-Based Art, Whitney Museum of American Art, 2019 - 2020
Research on the Conservation of Software-Based Art, Dia Foundation, 2019 - 2020
Research on the Conservation of Software-Based Art, Guggenheim Museum: 2014 – 2020
Research on the Conservation of Software-Based Art, Museum of Modern Art: 2011-2014

OTHER EDUCATIONAL ACTIVITIES

Responsibilities for the Undergraduate Computer Science Programs included interviewing and mentoring adjuncts who teach in the Computer Science Web Development minor and other undergraduate program courses.

Responsibilities as Director of the Program in Digital Humanities and Social Science included all administrative aspects (supervise the web site, marketing, outreach and coordination with other departments at NYU, admissions and committee chair) as well as curriculum development, student advising, and mentoring instructors.

Responsibilities as Associate Director of Undergraduate Studies for the CS Minors Programs included collaboration with the Director of Undergraduate Studies; advising students; and coordinating syllabi, course materials, and resources across the Computer Science Minors programs.

Co-directed the Computer Science department undergraduate TEE (Technology Enabled Education) initiative with Prof. Craig Kapp; six pilot sections in AY 2014-5; full implementation began in AY 2015-6 and continues through the present.

EDUCATION

- Bard Graduate Center
 - PhD Candidate, September 2020 – present
 - Dissertation topic: Machine Learning in Art
- New York University: Courant Institute of Mathematical Sciences
 - M.S., 1999, Computer Science
- State University of New York at Binghamton
 - M.A., 1980, Comparative Literature
- Jackson College of Tufts University
 - B.A., magna cum laude, 1978 in French and German

TEACHING AWARDS

- Teach/Tech Award, College of Arts and Science, New York University; May, 2016 with Prof. Craig Kapp
- Samuel L. Marateck Prize for Outstanding Teaching in Computer Science. Department of Computer Science, Courant Institute. Spring, 2014
- Golden Dozen Teaching Award, College of Arts and Science, New York University; May, 2006
- Outstanding Teacher Award, College of Arts & Science, New York University; May, 2001

WRITING PRIZE

- Heather Jane McCormick Prize for Richard Avedon and Marian Anderson: A Confluence of Photography, Opera, and Race, July, 2023. This prize, which honors BGC alumna Heather Jane McCormick, is awarded annually to a BGC student for outstanding work in the decorative arts, design history and material culture of New York.
